Our Town

Established in 1849, historic Old Town Auburn, is located 32 miles northeast of Sacramento at the intersection of I-80 and Hwy 49 in Placer County. Originally where gold was first discovered in Placer County, today it's the location for special events all year 'round, including a weekly Farmers market, Spring and Fall antique street fairs, a Cinco de Mayo celebration, a fall wine and food festival, classic car shows, the world-famous Amgen Cycling Race, and a Country Christmas which highlights the calendar.

Try one of our 15 restaurants, or 40 quaint shops and services. Don't miss the Old Town Gallery featuring the works of 60 local artists, all in one old historical building. Four museums can be found within a few blocks, where history buffs will find lots of rich Gold Country history.

The four-story vintage red and white Firehouse provides an iconic example of surprises that await the visitor. Make plans to spend quality time in Old Town Auburn. It's a great place to relax and enjoy a slice of Old California's pleasures and treasures.
